John R. Gibson & Co.

Dear Amy: When people must spend so much of their time at home, I don't see why more of them don't furnish their homes more beautifully. I feel sorry for poor Laura, whose husband just won't give her money to buy some new things her home is just craving for. He is slowly breaking her heart. I sometimes think I'll tell her husband not to be so stingy. Baby John has the "hookin" cough, so I dare not come to see you now.

Your old chum, Lou.

NO PANIC EXPECTED

There Will Be a Readjustment of Values. Foodstuffs To Rise.

United States Will Not Profit Much By European War.

The following from Col. W. P. Walton in the Lexington Herald, will be read with much interest here, where the Colonel has many friends and admirers: "Colonel W. P. Walton, the veteran newspaper man and one of the best informed men on financial questions in Lexington, was asked last night for his views regarding the effect of the European war upon American finances. He made the following statement: "I know very little of financial questions, but I thank you for the compulsion of inquiry, as the old negro did when asked if he could change a $20 bill—more money than he ever had in his life at one time.

"Since you ask me, however, it is my opinion that while the finances of this country will necessarily be affected for the time being by the war in Europe, and while there will be a readjustment in values, there will be no panic in financial circles here.

"Congress is wisely providing for an emergency currency to the amount of over a billion dollars, which will be issued to banks on prime commercial paper, up to 125 per cent of their capitals and surpluses. This will eliminate the desire to hoard cash and make good assets liquid as they were not in the panics that caused so much loss and suffering. The New York banks are already issuing clearing house certificates and steps are being taken to stem the tide of gold to Europe.

"The situation might have been better had the Federal Reserve system been permitted to go into operation, which was prevented by the Republican Senators and a few unpatriotic Democrats by the failure to confirm President Wilson's nominations for the Reserve Board.

"I am not of those who believe that his country will profit greatly by the war. 'War is hell,' as Gen'l Sherman said, and no good ever comes from it. Foodstuffs will advance and the farmers will get more for their products, but the consumer will be confronted with an additional high cost of living, as he, too, will have to pay the increased price. This country having practically no merchant marine, the movement of foodstuffs will be handicapped, since England, France and Germany could not handle the business as now. I am optimistic enough to believe, however, that everything will work out satisfactorily in the end and that this country will not be very seriously affected one way or the other."

Notice to Bidders.

We will take bids for the construction of a general farm barn at State land. Plans and general specifications are in the Normal office. Bids will be required. Right reserved to reject any or all bids.

Bids must be in Normal office by noon, August 19, 1915. Signed, J. G. CRANE.

A Bad Nose.

A circuit judge in Southern Kentucky accidentally killed himself last week by drinking a glass of carbolic acid which he thought was whisky.

We thought every Kentucky judge had at least an educated nose.

Liquor Sellers Fined.

J. A. Cox, proprietor of a hotel in Nicholasville, and his clerk, E. Sanders, were fined for selling liquor in local option territory. In 23 cases against them, they pleaded guilty to the first five and were fined $500 and costs. The other cases were continued and their prosecution depends upon their good behavior. If they are again found guilty of the same offense they will be tried in the 18 remaining cases. They were defended by a Lexington lawyer.

Some Facts In Regard To Crimson Clover.

Crimson clover is a cover and green manure crop of such value that every farmer in the State of Kentucky could find use for it on his farm. No other crop grown for similar purposes possesses as many advantages as crimson clover. Seeding is cheap—an important consideration. It may be seeded late in the summer after small grain crops are removed or in cultivated crops after cultivation ceases. It protects the soil during the winter and spring and furnishes large quantities of material rich in nitrogen which can be plowed under in sufficient season to permit planting corn or other cultivated crop. It is in fact a crop which interferes with few of the regular crops commonly grown on the farm and yet capable of improving soil almost as much as the longer lived red clover. While it is pre-eminently a soil improving crop, it will furnish fall and early spring pasture and will make considerable hay of fair quality. Red clover is proving a failure in so many cases that we must use something to take its place if we are to maintain the productivity of our soils, and crimson clover is undoubtedly the best substitute we have.

Many farmers have had poor success with crimson clover, and this has led to the belief that it is not adapted to Kentucky conditions. Most of these failures were doubtless due to a lack of knowledge of the requirements of the crop and careless and thoughtless methods of seeding. Crimson clover will not succeed every year and the farmer should learn when to plant it and when not to. It will succeed in most seasons, however, if rightly handled, and the crop is of such tremendous value that every farmer should make repeated tests with it until he learns how to grow it or proves decisively that it cannot be grown on his land. The following instructions will help the crop to succeed.

Do not plant in corn or cultivated crops of any kind unless there is abundant moisture at time of seeding.

When planting alone prepare a good seed bed. A good seed bed is one that is fine and made firm by rolling.

Cover the seed carefully. Every seed not covered will probably be lost. Do not cover too deeply, however, or the seed may not get up. A clover drill is splendid for sowing crimson clover seed. Do not sow later than the first of September and preferably by the middle of August.

Get good seed. Buy it by sample and test it for germination. Plant 100 seeds in a box of clean sand and keep the sand moist. If less than 90 seed grow, refuse to buy the seed.

Do not pasture too closely in the fall, nor too late, for if you do it will certainly winter kill.

Do not plant on a poor, thin piece of land without first fertilizing. In most cases an application of 200 pounds of acid phosphate per acre will be a satisfactory treatment.

Do not plant on wet or poorly drained land. No clover will grow on such land. E. J. KINNEY, Asst. Agronomist, Kentucky Experiment Station.

Four Kentucky Girls.

The following letter will be of interest to many of our readers. It is a genuine letter, but we are requested not to give the name of the writer of the post-office.

Editor Climax:—Will you kindly insert in your paper the following letter, which we are sure will be of interest to many of our readers:

Miss Mary Lee Colyer, and three of her lively girl friends from Ashland, are spending their vacation in Canada, noted to all tourists for its beautiful water-ways, terraced lawns, sanitary homes and hospitable people, and recognized as the most delightful resort for outing in the world. In this Kentucky quartette, it appears that the charming Miss Lula — is responsible for causing the heart of a rich Canadian bachelor to melt at first sight. This ponderous fellow possesses more avoidpols and more foot than either style or grace, but he has nerve, is game and willing to fight for the possession of his new love. Quick and brave he is, and at one sitting told the "history of four kings," and many other things, too, to the bewitching Miss Lula; proposing a union of hearts and lives, and offering to throw in to the bargain his great bulk and immense wealth; also a joy ride by yacht and aeroplane around the globe. Why frown and say no, Miss Lula, when this was the first "mash" of the Kentucky beauties? Be game; the writer is for you. X. Y. Z.

The Cost of Foreign War In Life and Money.

According to figures compiled by MacLaren, a war authority, the present European conflict will cost more in money and human life than any previous war in history. Since authentic history began, he asserts, the loss in battle has been 1,400,000,000, or a number equal to the entire population of the globe for the last 350 years. The Old World, from 1653 until 1815, was engaged in 65 years of warfare, which cost the people $5,915,000,000, in addition to a debt of $1,000,000,000. The cost of supporting large standing armies and navies in time of peace since then has been enormous. The six great powers involved in the present war have the following records:

France—25 wars; won 12 and lost 13.
Germany—10 wars; won 8 and lost 2.
Russia—4 wars; lost 4.
Austria—15 wars; won 8 and lost 7.
Italy—8 wars; won 3 and lost 5.
During the Crimean war the allies sustained a total loss of 253,600 and Russia 256,000. The cost to England was $315,000,000; to France $165,000,000 and to Russia $710,000,000.

In the Franco-Prussian war 28,600 Germans were killed and 101,000 wounded, while France lost 156,000 killed and 143,000 wounded and 720,000 surrendered to the German or neutral States.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR U. S. SENATOR—FULL TERM,
J. C. W. BECKHAM.

FOR U. S. SENATOR—SHORT TERM
JOHNSON N. CAMDEN.

FOR CONGRESS,
HARVEY HELM.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce HUGH H. COFFEY a candidate for State Auditor, subject to action of the Democratic Primary, August, 1915.

The August primary election is over. Some of us are disappointed in the result; some of us got just what we wanted.

J. C. W. Beckham for U. S. Senator for the long term and Johnson N. Camden for U. S. Senator, short term, are the men whom the Democrats of Kentucky are asked to support. Harvey Helm is the man for the Democrats of the Eighth district to stand by. They are good men, each and every one. Madison county must do her part in the district and in the State. She always has done it. It is needless to say that the Climax will do its part in supporting the nominees. This issue of the Climax rounds out its fortieth year. Next week's paper will be the beginning of its forty-first year. For forty years the Climax has "followed the flag," fought for democratic principles and supported without wavering democratic nominees. Ofttimes the nominees have not been of our choice. Sometimes it has been a severe strain upon our party loyalty to support them, but we have never yet swerved to the right nor to the left.

We have no fear as to the old Democrats of the county, district or State, those who have fought the battles for democracy for years. It is to the young democracy to which we especially appeal; to that class of young Democrats who haven't yet learned that it is principle that we are fighting for, not this man or that man; not my choice or your choice, but principle, a fundamental truth. We have been much gratified with the tone of the State press since the primary, the forget-the-past-and-get-together spirit from all sections of the State. The defeated candidates, Gov. McCreary and Congressman Stanley, have both come promptly to the front and offered their support and their aid in every way. Those of us who personally know these men know of what stuff they are made, and know they will make good their word.

Let there be a united democracy, with "malice toward none and charity for all."

St. Petersburg, however, reports that no fighting of any importance has taken place and that the Germans still are at the border, where they have been for some days. Two Montenegrin armies, one under command of King Nicholas and the other commanded by the crown prince, are marching to aid the Serbians against the Austrians. Honor For Richmond Man.

The following is from the Nicholas County Advocate: "We find in the Drygoodsman a trade paper published in St. Louis, that an idea of Mr. R. C. Oldham, of the firm of C. K. & R. C. Oldham, was thought to be of sufficient merit to be adopted by the Conference and same was adopted and recommended for use in the entire retail shoe trade of this country. This idea, which was adopted by the Conference Committee of the Shoe Retailers and Manufacturers, had to deal with the matter of goods returned for adjustment. Says the Drygoodsman: 'We are glad to know that an idea developed in our territory should be accepted by the National Conference as worthy of adoption by the entire trade.'"

Richmond claims the honor. Mr. Oldham is a Richmond product, we simply having loaned him for a while to our neighbor, Carlisle. He is the wellknown son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Oldham and received his training in the mercantile line under that merchant prince, Mr. W. D. Oldham. No honor can come to him of which the Climax will not be proud.

Body Removed.

Mr. Chas. H. Pigg, of Richmond, and Mrs. Mattie Pigg Wilkerson, of Lexington, were here Tuesday and had the remains of their mother, Mrs. Cynthia A. Pigg, disinterred and removed to the Richmond Cemetery, there to rest beside her husband, the late M. H. Pigg. Mrs. Pigg was the daughter of Jos. Wilson, pioneer hotel keeper, who died of cholera during an epidemic of that plague in 1849. Mrs. Pigg died of tuberculosis in 1867 and was buried in the old Irvine Cemetery.

Besides the two children named, another son, Dr. W. B. Pigg, and a brother, Joseph Wilson, who lives in Missouri, also survive. The Pigg and Wilson families were among the most prominent in the county.—Estill Tribune.

AGED MAN SEEKS SON FROM MEXICO

James A. Carter Found. Richmond, Kentucky, Changed After Fifty Years.

Driven From Durango Venerable Refugee Asks Aid of El Paso Police in Locating Only Relative.

James A. Carter, bent with the weight of his nearly seventy years, wandered into police headquarters yesterday afternoon seeking assistance in an effort to locate his son, Santiago Carter, whom he left in El Paso some two weeks ago.

The story related to Captain Greet by the aged man was indeed a pathetic one. Carter has lived in Durango many years. His son and the latter's wife and family were born there. Recently, for political reasons, he says, they were driven from their home, losing the savings of a lifetime. On July 1 they arrived in El Paso.

RICHMOND CHANGED IN HALF CENTURY.

Not wishing to be a burden on his son, the father decided to visit his old home at Richmond, Ky. He was furnished with money for the trip by United States Consul at Jaures.

Carter told the police captain that he was but a lad when he left Kentucky, and in all the years he had never found time to return. Reaching Richmond, which when he had last seen it, more than half a century ago, was a struggling little hamlet in which he knew every one. Carter was amazed to find a thriving city of many thousands of people. But among the thousands there was none who remembered the aged refugee from Mexico. His relatives were long since dead and forgotten.

With his heart filled with sorrow, the old man again turned his face toward the West, where the only friends he had known for so many years were located. Reaching El Paso, he went to the hotel where he had left his son, but the latter had left, and no one seemed to know where he had gone.

Captain Greet at once offered to help the old man, and detailed an officer on the case, Carter in the meanwhile being made comfortable at the station.

Investigation disclosed that at Santiago Carter and family had registered and remained a few days at the Simona hotel, on South El Paso street. The manager of the place told the police that Carter had moved away without giving any information as to where he was going. The man believed, however, that his former guest was still in the city.

The younger Carter is described as 5 feet 6 inches in height, with dark hair and dark eyes, weighing 150 pounds. He is 24 years of age and a carpenter, was born in Mexico and speaks no English. Mrs. Carter's first name is Cristina and the four children are all small.

Last night Captain Greet arranged for the elder Carter to stop at the Simona hotel pending the result of the search for the son. The old man declares that, despite his advanced age, he is a good carpenter and is able and anxious to work and does not wish to be a burden upon the city or upon his son in the event the latter is located.—El Paso, Texas, Times.

Infection And Insect Bites Dangerous.

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage piles, ponds of stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects Cuts, Bruises and Sores. No Owner of 200 Cars Wheat.

Two hundred car loads of wheat are standing in the Santa Fe railroad yards at Galveston, Texas, without an owner. Some of them have been there for three weeks, yet the person who consigned them cannot be found and no bill of lading has been received. Efforts are being made to locate the owner, as it is believed the wheat came from some point in Kansas.

Congressmen Are Grafters.

The House, in yielding to the Senate in the matter of the 20 cent mileage grab, goes upon record as being willing to accept graft after having unctuously declared against it.

The public, which has every right to be as cynical about the actions of Congress which affects the pocketbooks of Congressmen, as it is when there is legislation adverse to the interests of the masses and advantageous to certain interests, will hardly credit the House with strenuous probity.

The cost of travel per mile has decreased as the country has grown in wealth and population. One of the prime necessities of modern times is transportation. Its reasonableness in cost is a matter of the greatest public importance. Congress has shown itself awake to this fact and has forwarded the popular movement to bring down the cost of both freight and passenger service.

It costs no more to haul a Congressman than it does to haul a man in private life who pays his own transportation expenses. The mileage grab is, therefore, nothing more or less than petty graft upon the part of every member of Congress. In the aggregate it amounts to a good deal, but its acceptance is more lamentable because of its viciousness in principle than because of the effect upon the treasury.

Ship subsidy, a high protective tariff, free tolls for American ships passing through the Panama Canal are all examples of special privilege against which this Congress has sternly set its face. No honest defense of the mileage grab can be made by the most needy member of Congress. The most adroit member cannot make a plausible defense of it. Congress has simply declined to quit grafting. That is all there is to it. Honor to those whose names are recorded as having voted against the greedy majority.—Exchange.

Fayette Farm Brings $50,000.

The old Isaac Shelby farm of 400 acres, on Jack's Creek pike at the junction with the Richmond road, in Fayette county, was sold last week by the George heirs to Llewelyn Sharp for $50,000. This is one of the best sales made in Fayette county in months. The farm is a fine tract of land.

A household remedy in America for 25 years.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For cuts, sprains, burns, scalds, bruises, 25c and 50c, at all drug stores.

Dead Letter Office Closed.

The "dead letter" office in the postal department at Washington is no more. The last sale of old letters and parcels was recently held and realized $4,500. Eighty employees were discharged or transferred to other departments, and Uncle Sam is now conducting his "letter business" more efficiently.

The office was really abolished because of the big decrease in lost, misdirected or unsigned pieces of mail, and because letters addressed to persons who cannot be found are more speedily disposed of by opening machines and quick clerks.

But while the "dead letter" office is to be abolished, the misdirected mail matter in the future is to be distributed in 15 cities throughout the country. For instance if a letter is mailed from Springfield, O., to Albany, N. Y., and the address is incorrect and there is no return address on the envelope, the letter will be sent to Chicago, where it will be opened. If information as to the name of the sender is written therein, the letter will be forwarded back to Springfield.

To Benjamin Franklin probably belongs the distinction of starting the dead letter division of the postoffice. When the seat of the Federal government was in Philadelphia, Franklin had a bureau where misdirected letters were examined. The dead letter office was established in 1825. Before 1860 few detailed records were kept of the receipts in the dead letter office, although one old book in the department showed that in 1839 there were 380,000 letters referred to that bureau. In 1859, in response to a Senate resolution, the Postmaster General reported that the receipts of parcels and letters for the year numbered 2,500,000.

In 1875 there were 29 men and 50 women employed in this bureau and the office was mentioned as "a model of industry and punctuality."

Last year the force consisted of about 180 persons and more than 12,000,000 pieces of mail matter were handled, most of it being returned to the senders.

A Hoosier Cabinet makes a Model Kitchen

Why Do 700,000 Women Own Hoosier Cabinets?

When you know that 700,000 women use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets three times every day, doesn't it suggest to you that you need this drudgery-saver in YOUR kitchen?

Figure it out to yourself this way: Would they have bought these cabinets without convincing themselves that they SAVE MILES OF STEPS and hours of time? Would so many have bought them at all if users hadn't told others and thus influenced their friends to buy them.

Since this means that more Hoosier Cabinets have been sold than all other 128 makes of cabinets combined, isn't it proof enough that the Hoosier is the best cabinet on the market?

When you see how the Hoosier groups four cupboards around a large metal table and places 400 articles at your fingers' ends so you can sit down and work -AND REST while working—you'll want one of these "White Beauties."

South Portal to Palace of Food Products, Pan-ama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, 1915

Copyright, 1914, by Panama-Pacific International Exposition Co.

THIS portal is probably the most modern in feeling of any doorway to any of the main group of exhibit palaces. The portal is Italian renaissance in form and treatment, but much of the ornamentation is of more recent origin. The photograph gives no idea of the great dimensions of this portal, which is sixty-six feet in height to the tip of the ornamentation surmounting the arch. The eagles above the line of pilasters of the portal are six feet in height. The Exposition palaces are constructed of grayish cream plaster in imitation of Travertine marble.

Personalities.

Keep clear of personalities in general conversation. Talk of things, objects, thoughts. The smallest minds occupy themselves with personalities. Personalities must sometimes be talked, because we have to learn and find out men's characteristics for legitimate objects; but it is to be with confidential persons. Do not needlessly report ill of others. There are family boards where a constant process of depreciating, as-sessing motives and cutting up of character goes forward. They are not pleasant places. One who is healthy doesn't wish to dine at a dissecting table. There is evil enough in man, God knows, but it is not the mission of every young man to detail and report. Keep the atmosphere as pure as possible, and fragrant with gentleness and charity.

Standing Together.

Another Georgia town has voted in favor of saloons, and here is the reason given by a citizen:
"If we are going to stand for our women folks wearing shadow skirts, slit skirts and transparent skirts, and our daughters learning to dance the boll weevil waltz, the Texas-Tommy tango, the bunny-bug, the bear-dance, the half-centre, the buzzard-flap and the puppy-huddle, and so on down the line, then the men folks might just as well have their saloons and the whole bunch go to h—l together!"—Pineville, Ga., Herald.

By And About Women.

Pittsburg club women are asking for a woman chief of police.
Denver women are asking that they be drawn as grand jurors.
Women work as stevedores in Japan.
Every police court session in San Francisco is attended by a member of the League of Justice, an organization of 50 women which has undertaken to revise police court procedure in cases of crimes against women. Mrs. Alice M. Best is president of the league.
Donn's Regulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all drug stores.

Excessive Labor.

He had carried a cue nine miles 'round a billiard table and pushed a lawn mower once across his 30x20 lawn. Then he collapsed. "Overwork," said the sympathetic doctor and put him to bed—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Constipation Causes Sickness

Don't permit yourself to become constipated, as your system immediately begins to absorb poison from the backed-up waste matter. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and keep well. There is no better safeguard against illness. Just take one dose to-night. 25c, at your Druggist.

Baby Show

From among 200 babies entered in the "Better Baby Contest" held at Hay View, Mich., last week, in which the contestants were entered by their parents, who, living in all parts of the United States, have summer homes at Hay View, many babies from Louisville, Lexington and Henderson received decorations in the form of certificates of honorable mention.

Give The President Another Credit Mark.

Managers of the Western railroads have accepted arbitrations of the wage dispute with their engineers and firemen.
Following President Wilson's plea that a strike be averted because of the sensitive situation in the United States as a result of the European crisis, the railroad managers visited the White House at Washington, just before noon last Monday and advised the President they would accept the plan proposed by the Federal Board of Mediation, which had already been passed upon favorably by the representatives of the engineers and firemen. The plan provides that the question of wages shall be arbitrated under the Newlands act and that rules and regulations enforced prior to October, 1913, shall be restored.

When the baby is suffering the double affliction of hot weather and bowel disorders, the remedy needed is MCGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It relieves the feverish condition, corrects the stomach and checks looseness of the bowels. Price 25c and 50c a bottle. Sold by Wines' Drug Store.

Health Board to Meet At Pineville.

Reports from health officers in widely scattered sections of the State indicate a large increase in the number of cases of Pellagra. The State Board of Health, at the suggestion of a large number of local health officials, has called a second conference for the study of Pellagra, to be held at Pineville for Aug. 18-20. During this conference the laws enacted at the recent session of the Kentucky Legislature for the prevention of blindness, will also be discussed and steps taken looking to making them effective. Hundreds of physicians from all parts of the South will be present at the meeting. A. T. McCormack, Secretary.

Apply a cotton cloth wet with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT to all wounds, cuts, burns, sores or blisters, and note its wonderful healing power. It is prompt and very effective. Price 25c, 50c and $1 a bottle. Sold by Wines' Drug Store.

Helps For The Farmers Wife.

For a neuralgia apply hot dry flannels, as hot as can be borne.
A flannel dipped in boiling water and sprinkled with turpentine laid on the chest as quickly as possible will relieve the most severe cold.
To remove fine pin feathers when dressing a chicken rub with cooking soda. They can be easily scraped off.
Do not leave a spoon in anything you are cooking; it conducts away some of the heat.
If the tops of pies are brushed over with the yolk of egg they will brown and glaze when cooked.
If a ham to be boiled whole is first boiled several minutes in soda water the skin will clean off bright and clear; then rinse the ham well and put back into clear water to finish cooking. Meat that is close up to spoiling can be sweetened by treating the same way, and all hint of taint will disappear.

How To Cure a Sprain.

A sprain may be cured in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers.

Land, Stock, Crop

A machine that cures grass, turning it into hay in the course of 30 minutes, is the latest step in up-to-date farming.

The department of agriculture has been studying the results of horse breeding in the United States, based on the reports from 10,000 breeders, and finds that there is a profit of about 40 per cent. in a 3-year colt above the cost of raising.

Net cost of producing and growing a colt to the age of 3 years, allowing for work done, averages $96.54, and the selling price averages $136.17. The leading cost is feeding, 54 per cent.; cost of care and shelter, 16 per cent.; and the remainder is covered by breaking to halter, by veterinary service and sundry other items.

It takes some inspiration and a lot of perspiration to make good on the farm.
Hogs more than 6 months old make less rapid gains when fed on corn alone than when fed on corn and a supplement in connection with blue-grass and timothy, but the gains made from the former ration are usually as cheap as from the latter.

Some pigs require more food than do others, and it is not easy to average the daily ration to each. One-third pound of oats and two-thirds pound of ground corn is a good proportion, and a little bran or middlings may be added with a little oilmeal of either kind.
The great value of sheep on the farm lies in their ability to utilize the roughages to advantage, their consumption of woods and other waste products and the return they make to the soil in the shape of manure. Every farmer should have upon his farm as many sheep as he can practically care for.

The real test of value in a horse is strength, lively action and endurance, combined in the lightest weight possible. In the make-up of a first-class draft horse, quality counts for more than bulk.
A Marion county man sold 18 head of cattle for $2,074.25. They weighed 24,900 pounds and sold at 8 1/4c. This is said to have been the best and highest priced lot of cattle ever sold in Marion county. They were bought by Monte Fox, of Danville, for shipment to New York.

W. S. Beasley, of Fayette, sold to M. Fox, agent for Armour & Co., 180 export cattle, averaging 1,310 pounds. A record price of $152.12 1/2 per head, or a total of $23,782.50 for the lot.

In Kansas it will take 178,000 cars to move this year's wheat crop. This means 2,996 trains of 60 cars each.
The potato crop in Kentucky is a failure, but in many other States it was a blooming success. California potatoes sold last Saturday in Chicago at 90c to 95c per bushel, while Kansas farmers were selling fine stock on the same market at 50c to 60c a bushel.

According to reports received by the Burley Tobacco Society in Lexington, only 80 per cent. of the average acreage of White Burley was planted this season and the growing crop is very thin on the ground, due to the fact that there was only one season for setting out the plants and the long-continued droughts have killed a large per cent. of what was set out. It is stated by the Burley officials that it is yet impossible to estimate the probable size of the crop as compared with former years, as the recent rains have in many sections greatly improved conditions.

Harry Weissinger & Son, of Shelby county, sold last week to R. A. Long, the Kansas City millionaire lumberman, 62 imported Jersey cattle for $30,000. This is said to be the largest transaction of the kind ever made.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou.

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife, who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

One On The Hello Girl.

One of the handsomest girls in Paris, (Ky.), is one of the "hell girls" who jingles the plugs and the switchboard of a certain telephone exchange in the city of Paris, (Ky.). After a round of routine work all day and part of the night before she went to church in Millersburg, Sunday night. Toward the close of the service Nature asserted its supremacy, and she went to sleep. When the services closed the minister arose and gave out the announcement: "Let us sing hymn No. 341." The tired young woman awoke just in time to hear the number called, yawned, and, to the consternation of her escort, who had been too much absorbed in the sermon to notice his companion's lapse into slumberland, said: "Lines, busy; call again." Explanations were made and accepted, and all went along as merrily as the proverbial marriage bell.—Bourbon News.

Newspaper Wreckage.

It is becoming an increasingly serious proposition to run an up-to-date newspaper in a progressive city. The other day Portsmouth, O., Daily Blade sold its plant and quit business. It is said that several fortunes have been spent on the Blade, but it was never even moderately successful. A daily paper at Carlisle, W. Va., suspended publication about the same time after eating up many thousands of dollars for its promoters. Of the two papers left at Charleston, one is in the hands of a receiver. At Waterloo, Ia., a few days ago the Daily Courier shut up shop at the fiftieth year of its age, leaving only one daily in the town, which has a population of about 30,000. In Chicago recently the Inter-Ocean went into a receivership. In New Orleans this week the two morning dailies, the Picayune and Times-Democrat, both long established, were consolidated. There are but a few instances of the thinning out that is going on in the newspaper field, and it is our prediction that the thinning has only fairly begun.

HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which result in weakness, dullness and sickness. If your children are under-size, underweight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-foot or children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

Summer Constipation Dangerous.

Constipation in summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Pains, Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. 50c at your Druggist.

Had Senator Bradley lived, the claims due Kentuckians and other Southerners would have been paid at this session of Congress. Senator Bradley notwithstanding his political off-color, was loyal to his constituents, and did more for them than any Senator Kentucky has sent there within the past twenty years. While he kept up on political matters, yet he never jeopardized the interests of his people to play politics. It was a sad day for those Southerners holding legal claims against the Government when Senator Bradley died.—Danville Messenger.

HURRAH! THEY'RE HERE

From Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Gentle, blissful, wonderful workers, Hot Springs Liver Buttons surely are; take one tonight and free the bowels from poisonous waste and gas. You'll feel bright and happy to-morrow. All druggists, 25c.

Be sure and get some, for besides being a wonderful laxative they are a great system tonic. They give you a keen appetite and rid the blood of impurities. Hot Springs Liver Buttons, Hot Springs Rheumatism Remedy and Hot Springs Blood Remedy are sold in Richmond by the Richmond Drug Co.

Running Newspapers.

Discussing some recent newspaper failures, the Sturgis News-Democrat is moved to remark: "Even the noted Munsey of magazine fame, failed to make a big newspaper go. However, this does not deter or discourage hundreds of others without experience, ability or capital from trying it out."

There is no business wherein ability, experience and capital are more needed than in the publication of a newspaper. But did you ever stop to think how many papers are being run without these essential elements of newspaper success? It is not so easy nowadays as it used to be to start a paper without capital, but there are a few places left where this can be done. As for experience and ability—well, did you ever see a human being anywhere who didn't feel competent to run a newspaper, even though he didn't know a galley from a grab-hook?

Unique Platform.

A man who is already quietly feeling around with a view to running on the ticket as a city councilman, is giving his ten reasons why he should be thus honored by his fellow townsmen. He has some very strong planks in his platform and a few that are quite unique. For instance, he says that if he is elected he will do his utmost to see that all dogs have licenses. In his opinion a dog is no better than a saloon, or a man who is going to get married, and they have to have licenses; besides, after a man is married he leads a dog's life, anyway, and the candidate intends to devote his best efforts to prevent the canine having the best of it over us any longer.—The Greenville Record.

Not So Strange After All.

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes: "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." For sale by all dealers.

Sense and Nonsense.

Tell a man that the end of the world is near and he will pay no attention to you; but tell him he is about to lose $10 and he gets nervous at once.—Santa Fe Mexican.

"What yer done name dat mule?" asked Ike; Senator, said Mose. "Whut fur?" "Cause yer kin 'buse him all yer want to, but it ain't goin' to make him hurry!" answered Mose. Bacon—Now I see there is a dog in New York that wants to vote. Egbert—Well, why not? Because there's a dog tax, isn't there?—Yonkers Statesman. Presumably Skip Grace, of Carrollton, is one of those ultra-moderates who eats his meals without saying a blessing.—Kansas City Star. "Some day," cried the outraged poet, "you editors will fight for my work!" "All right," sighed the editor, regretfully, "I'll be a good sport if I get licked!"—Puck. She—Tell me of your early struggles. He—There's not much to tell. The harder I struggled, the more the old man laid it on!—Boston Transcript. "Pa, what's a flare-back?" "Pa—"When you get married, son, you will find out!" "Man is a worm, the preacher saith, As often we have heard, Ah, yes! and he might also add Woman's the early bird!" The slit in the skirts seem to be racing with the "cost of living" to see which will go the highest? "Mary had a little lamb", at a swell cafe and it cost $1.25 a portion!—Washington Herald. One by one our children leave us, One by one they wed, alas! One by one divorces grieve us, One by one they wander back! Edison did not make the first talking machine, The Lord made it to keep Adam from getting lonesome in the garden of Eden. Happiness in a perfume which one cannot shed over another without a few drops falling on one's self. When a boy takes a bath the act should be classified as a transfer of real estate! The number of postage stamps printed for the United States government last year amounted to 9,773,424,000. A woman who can successfully raise a fern need not have any worry about managing a husband. "Build for yourself a strong box; Fashion each part with care, And when it's as strong as your hands can make it, Lock all your 'knocks' in there!" "John, if I should die, I want you to promise me you won't marry again, not for a year, at least." "All right, go ahead. I'll promise anything!"—Chicago Herald.

CHAMPION HERDS AT SHOW CIRCUIT

Over Four Thousand Dollars Offered In Premiums This Year

A BEAUTIFUL SILVER CUP

Short Horns, Herefords, Polled Durham and Aberdeen Angus Banner-Bearers Booked for Exhibition at Kentucky State Fair.

Superlatives regarding the class of beef cattle to be exhibited at the twelfth annual Kentucky State Fair will find justification in the specimens to be on hand for the greatest exhibit in the fair history of the state.

Over $4,000 is offered in premiums this year for beef cattle prize winners, and rich donations are listed from the American Short Horn, Hereford and Polled Durham Pedigree Record Associations.

A beautiful silver cup will be offered for the best state exhibit in each of the four leading breeds of beef cattle—Short Horns, Herefords, Polled Durham and Aberdeen Angus.

Prizes will also be offered for the best exhibit made by members of the Baby Beef Cattle Clubs throughout the state. All the best herds that make the Show Circuit of 1914 are expected to appear at the Kentucky State Fair. Friday afternoon, September 18, a parade of the prize winners in all the beef cattle classes will take place in the live stock pavilion, the handsome animals decorated with brilliant ribbons indicating the awards they have won, showing in panorama the successful aggregate of the entire department.

PRETENTIOUS WILL BE POULTRY SHOW

The Finest Fowls and Prize Pigeons of Country-Famed Lofts Feature of Kentucky State Fair.

Articles galore have been written regarding the amazing advance of the hen to a position of dignity and recognized importance in the commerce of the world and an agricultural exhibition without this one-time lightly regarded fowl would be as savorless as "soup without salt" or as ineffectual as "a ship without a rudder." And never has the value of the hen been more emphatically shown than in the importance of the poultry exhibit at a State or County Fair, and never will a Kentucky State Fair boast a greater or classier aggregation of fowls than the numerous breeds to go on exhibition at the twelfth annual Kentucky State Fair in September 14-19.

Over $1,000 in premiums has been offered for poultry and pigeons, and every known variety recognized by the American Standard of Perfection is given a class in this show.

In addition to the classes for single birds there are premiums for breeding pens in all the most popular varieties. The prize classification has been arranged to suit the ideas of the pigeon fanciers both in and out of the state and as a whole is now big enough and broad enough to attract any pigeon loft or squab farm in the country.

Entries for the poultry show close September 4. Three beautiful trophies are offered as special prizes in this department, one being given by the Maywood Poultry Farm, one by the Kentucky State Poultry Association, and one by the publishers of the Industrious Hen.

WONDER WORKS OF WOMANKIND

To Be Exhibited in Lavish Array at the Kentucky State Fair—Winners Will Be Queens of Art, Needle and Culinary Realms.

Every art and craft known to the realms of femininity will be represented in the exhibition of handicraft to be shown at the twelfth annual Kentucky State Fair September 14-19. The premium list for 1914 has been greatly enlarged and augmented, and the result will doubtless be the most attractive showing in the history of the fair. The exhibition this year will be in charge of Mrs. Thomas Smith, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and she will be assisted by the latter in charge of the arts and crafts department.

Linen, embroideries, art work, lace, infant's outfits, all lines of culinary work and miscellaneous products will have full showing this year and the competition for the handsome prizes will be spirited.

An award in this department means far more to the recipient than the monetary consideration, recording as it does the supremacy of the triumphant exhibitors over the most expert competitors in the entire state and preserving to posterity a proof of dexterity in either art, needle or culinary craft which is well worth striving for.

The Kentucky breeder of live stock can not bring his stock before the public attention better than by taking a premium at the Kentucky State Fair.

The Twenty Year Test.

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by all dealers.

The Emergency Value of Big Organization

WHEN a real catastrophe happens to a telephone system; when a fire destroys an exchange and the terminal apparatus, or a storm lays low the pole lines, the value of a big organization is quickly shown.

When a conflagration swept the city of Chelsea, Mass., it burned the Bell telephone exchange and destroyed the telephone equipment.

The next day a temporary central station was established, amid the ruins, and the service restored.

With similar promptness telephone service was re-established in Baltimore, San Francisco and Bangor, and after the more recent disasters in the Middle West.

To meet great emergencies, complete switchboards and apparatus valued at over $100,000 are kept at Chicago and New York, crated and ready for shipment whenever the call for help comes from any part of the organization.

Democratic Fruit.
We are not going to call it the "pie counter." It's genuine fruit from the Democratic garden in Washington. It's a nice plum from a tree that grows in the Treasury department and is known as the Senator Camden variety. Judge J. J. Greenleaf is the recipient. In plain language the popular young judge has, through the influence of his friend Senator Camden, been offered and accepted a good position doing special work along legal lines in the Treasury department at Washington. The Senator is evidently a force with the powers that be and is going to make himself felt. Kentuckians will hear from him. Judge Greenleaf will take the position about September 1. It is a position of trust and responsibility and carries with it a snug salary. The regret is it will take the judge and his family away from Richmond a large part if not all of his time. However, the best wishes of the entire community go with them.

An Old Veteran Gone.

Ewald Schneider, aged 71 years, died at his home in Nicholasville Friday, the 21st ult., after a lingering illness caused by paralysis. He was born in the city of Lengenfeld, Saxony, Germany, and when ten years old began life as a sailor. When the Civil War began he came to America and enlisted in the Union army and was in the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Murfreesboro, and at Chickamauga a cannon ball severed his left leg and a bullet wound in the right leg left him a cripple. At this battle he was taken prisoner by the Confederates, but was later exchanged. Mr. Schneider was a 32d degree Mason, having been a member of the Scottish Rite in Boston a number of years ago. He came to this city in the early '70s and had since resided here and notwithstanding his physical infirmities had supported his family and amassed quite an estate. He was a man highly respected by all who knew him. —Jessamine Journal.

Death of The President's Wife.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President of the United States, died at the White House at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, 6th inst. Death came after a brave struggle of months against Bright's disease, with other complications.

The President was completely unimpaired by the shock and his grief was heart-rending. He bore up well, however, under the strain and devoted himself to his daughters.

The end came while Mrs. Wilson was unconscious. Her illness took a turn for the worst shortly before 1 o'clock and from that time on she gradually grew worse.

President Wilson was holding his wife's hands and their three daughters, Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, Mrs. Frances B. Sayre and Miss Margaret Wilson, were kneeling at the bedside when the end came. "Doctor, I am going; take care of Woodrow," were her last words.

Both Houses of Congress adjourned when Mrs. Wilson's death was announced and for a brief time the wheels of the Government stopped, while every one paid respect to the President's loss. Telegrams of sympathy were received from all parts of the country, requiring three operators to handle the messages.

Telegrams were sent to custodians of all Government buildings throughout the land ordering the stars and stripes to be displayed at half mast and to so remain until after the funeral and burial of Mrs. Wilson.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the East room of the White House, simply, in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Wilson, characterizing the entire service. After the services the body was taken to Rome, Ga., the burial place of her parents. During the trip through the South the people paid respect by tolling church bells as the special train passed. Christ church, at Alexandria, Va., which George Washington attended, joined in this tribute. Outside of members of the family, only members of the Cabinet and their wives, the members of special committees from the Senate and House, a few intimate friends and the employees of the White House were present at the services. While the services were in progress, both Houses of Congress and all Government departments were closed and all flags were at half mast.

An Accident.
Last Wednesday night as Mr. D. J. Simmons was driving in a buggy on the farm of Mr. P. R. Broadus, his horse in some manner became entangled with the lines and upset the buggy. Mr. Simmons was thrown violently to the ground and considerably shaken and bruised. He has about recovered from the effects of the shock and is able to be up and about.

The $500 contest in speed class will be worth seeing at Stanford Fair.

Winchester Hotel Burns.
A fire which originated in an unknown manner in the engine room of the St. George Hotel, at Winchester, at an early hour Saturday morning, caused damage to the amount of about $5,000. The automobile house and a large touring car belonging to W. W. and C. B. George were destroyed, with two gas engines and two dynamos. A stable and several vehicles were burned. There was no insurance upon the destroyed property.

Open Local Office.
Chas. H. Chestnut, vice-president and general manager of the Yellow Pine Co., of Philadelphia, is here arranging for the opening of a branch office in this city, which will be in the Alexander building and will be ready for business at once. Miss Eva O. Nash will be in charge of the office, through which all Western business will be handled.

With Mr. Chestnut is G. E. Davidson, who was recently appointed assistant manager of the hewn tie and piling department of the Kirby Lumber Co., with headquarters at Silsbee. He was formerly manager of the Philadelphia office of the Long-Bell Lumber Co. Prior to going to that city Mr. Davidson was connected with the Kirby Lumber Co., at Beaumont. He is very well known here.

When Mr. Davidson arrived here a week ago from the East he tried to secure a location for the Yellow Pine Co. merely as a favor and his purpose was misconstrued. It was reported that he would have charge of the Beaumont branch for the Eastern concern.—Beaumont Daily Journal.

Miss Eva O. Nash, mentioned as having charge of the Beaumont office of this concern, is a Richmond girl, daughter of Mr. J. T. Nash. Until recently she has been connected with the home office, in Philadelphia.

He also won the 2-year-old 5-gaited class with her, and was placed third in the 5-gaited class, best stallion, mare or gelding 2 years old. In the 5-gaited saddle ring, mare or gelding, H. C. McElwaine won first premium. Mrs. John Wagers took second premium on sweet pickled peaches. Mrs. Mary Finnell took first on tomato catsup and on pear preserves and second on peach preserves. Mrs. John K. Gibson took first on strawberry preserves. Other Madison county people took premiums, but we are unable to get a full and correct list.

A Narrow Escape.
Magistrate W. T. Chennault and Lawrence Roberts had a narrow escape from death Wednesday when a keg of powder near which they were standing exploded. Young Roberts was hissing in a pool on the farm of his father, Milton Roberts, on the Hemphreys pike, and Squire Chennault was watching the work. After one blast had been made more powder was poured from the keg into the same hole. Sparks from the first blast set fire to the fresh powder and the whole keg let loose. Roberts was badly burned and Squire Chennault less seriously.—Shelby Record.

The above, W. T. Chennault, is our "Tandy," brother of Judge John C. and Hon. D. M. Chennault, with a host of relatives and friends in Madison county, who had not heard of the incident, but who rejoice that it was not more serious.

Sorry To Know It.
Sunday's Lexington Herald gives the following item which we, together with every newspaper in the State, will be sorry to see:

"A suit was filed in the Clark county Circuit Court Saturday by Charles B. Nelson, half owner of the Winchester Democrat, against his partner, Steve K. Vaughn, and Vaughn's partner, Rev. J. O. A. Vaughn, of Fort Thomas, asking for a dissolution of the partnership, a sale of the plant and a strict accounting of the books."

Mr. Vaughn was formerly a member of the Clinch force just before he became interested in the Winchester Democrat. Mr. Nelson we have known for several years and we deeply regret that there should be any differences between them. Both are good friends of ours. We trust it may be settled without further trouble. We are reminded of the nursery rhyme:

"Birds in their little nests agree
And 'tis a shameful sight
When children of one family
Fall out and chide and fight."

MARRIED

Miss May Day Logan, of Nicholasville, and Mr. Charles E. Soper, of Richmond, surprised their friends Tuesday by marrying at Williamsburg. Miss Logan is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Logan, while the bridegroom is the son of Ben F. Soper, of Richmond, and is a partner with his brother, Louis Soper, in the Richmond Lumber and Planing Mills Co. This is the second marriage of Mr. Soper, who is a nephew of O. T. Soper, of this city. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Soper left for a bridal trip, and upon their return will reside in Richmond.—Jessamine Journal.

The bride has frequently been the popular guest of Miss Mary Rice, daughter of Mayor Rice, of this city, and has many friends here. Mr. Soper is one of Richmond's most enterprising business men. We welcome Mrs. Soper and extend to them both our best wishes.

One of the most happy events of the season took place at the beautiful home of Mr. Samuel Mackey, "Overlook Farm," at 9 o'clock on last Wednesday morning, August 5th, when his daughter, Miss Margaret Frances, and Mr. Roy Harber Gatton, of Madisonville, were joined in happy marriage.

The attendants were Miss Alma Goff Lackey, sister of the bride, and Mr. R. H. Burman, Geo. D. Simmons, R. R. Burman, Jr., Dr. J. C. Morgan, Jas. B. Walker, R. C. H. Covington, Elmer Deatherage, J. A. Higgins, E. D. Ballard, W. T. Short, Z. T. Rice, Dr. R. C. Hogg and J. W. Hamilton.

The bride was attired in a gown of ivory crepe de chene, combined and draped with lace and chiffon. The veil was of delicate silk net, caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her bridesmaid wore a dress of white net and lace over pink satin and her bouquet was composed of Killarney roses and pinked peaches.

The guests were limited to a few friends of the contracting parties, those from a distance being Rev. Gatton and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Overall and son, of Elizabethtown; Miss Mae Lee of London; Mrs. Jack Elliot and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cochran; Misses Lillian and Grace Cochran, of Lancaster, Ky.

The happy couple left on an extended trip in the East, and upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Madisonville, where Mr. Gatton is employed as superintendent of schools.

Thursday evening Aug. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Turley, near this city, Mrs. Tommie Phelps Stapp and Mr. Eugene Parrish were made man and wife. Eld. C. K. Marshall was the officiating minister. Mrs. Stapp is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phelps, of the Summit, and sister of Mrs. G. B. Turley. Mrs. E. C. Wines and Miss Margaret Phelps all of this city, and Mrs. D. B. Kaos, of Georgetown and Edward and George of this city and John, of New York. Only relatives of the contracting parties are present. After the ceremony the happy couple drove by automobile to the home of Mr. Parrish on Red House Pike. Mr. Parrish is conducting the farm of the late R. P. McCord and is an industrious and good citizen. A batch of fifty years of age and feeling the needs of a good life companion secured one of the best the soil produces in the person of Mrs. Stapp.

J. Mort Rothwell Killed At Crab Orchard.

Sunday's Courier-Journal in a special from Stanford gives the following account of a killing at Crab Orchard:

J. Mort Rothwell, a prominent lawyer, formerly of Lancaster, was shot and almost instantly killed at Crab Orchard, this county, ten miles from here, today (Saturday), by Dud Shelton, a young farmer of the Flat Lick section. Rothwell and G. W. Shelton, the boy's father, were engaged in a dispute over a fee which Rothwell had charged Shelton and the fee was passed. Rothwell then stabbed Shelton and the youth came to his father's aid, drawing a gun and shooting Rothwell twice through the abdomen. Marshal Ramsey, of Crab Orchard, attempted to arrest young Shelton, when the boy turned the revolver on the officer, a bullet striking the latter's left leg below the knee and breaking both bones. Shelton then fled to the country and is being pursued by Sheriff J. G. Weatherford and a posse with bloodhounds.

Mr. Rothwell was well known in this city and was a member of Richmond Commandery Knights Templar. He was buried at Lancaster Sunday afternoon with Knights Templar honors, a dozen members of the order from here going down to take part in the burial services.

The following Sir Knights attended the funeral of J. M. Rothwell at Lancaster Sunday afternoon: Chas. C. Culton, R. R. Burman, Geo. D. Simmons, R. R. Burman, Jr., Dr. J. C. Morgan, Jas. B. Walker, R. C. H. Covington, Elmer Deatherage, J. A. Higgins, E. D. Ballard, W. T. Short, Z. T. Rice, Dr. R. C. Hogg and J. W. Hamilton.

County Judge Jas. H. Evans Dead.

County Judge James H. Evans, of Winchester, lost a prominent figure in local and State affairs, died Wednesday morning, August 5, at his home in that city, after an illness of cancer of the throat, from which he had been suffering acutely for several months. His death was not unexpected. Judge Evans was 70 years of age and was serving his fourth term as county judge of Clark. He served one term as Master Commissioner, was twice sheriff of the county and was a member of the Democratic State Committee from the 10th Congressional district when William Goebel was elected Governor. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Catherine Gay, two sons, Lee Evans, of the State Auditor's office, and Curtis, of Winchester.

Judge Evans was one of the most popular and best loved men in public life in the State. He was a cousin of the late Dr. G. W. Evans of this city, a second cousin of our townsman, Mr. Leslie P. Evans, who attended the funeral and burial. His funeral cortege was probably the largest ever seen in the county of Clark.

Stanford K. of P. Fair 19, 20, 21 of August.
